Wondering how prayer fits into our lives at TBC? Did you know that we have different ways to meet your prayer needs? After both services on Sunday, our prayer team is available at the front of the auditorium for personal and confidential prayer. You are not required to pray and your request is not brought before a team for group prayer. It is strictly a one-on-one, confidential time of prayer. Sometimes we enter church with heavy hearts and other times we are alerted through the message that we need to bring a need to our Father. This is a perfect way to do so.

Additionally, you can write your prayer needs and drop them in the box on the windowsill in the lobby. This request goes to a prayer team who prays for your need. You can also direct prayer requests to the team by submitting your request on our website: trinitybible.org. Everything is confidential!
